

Macquarie
ADHD
Parent Support Group Inc.

Supporting parents and carers of children and youth with ADHD, learning difficulties and co-existing conditions

Presenter Dr Mark Brandtman, Brandtman Educational Consulting

Topic: The ADHD Coach: maximizing outcomes across academic, social, employment & family environments

Date & Time: Thursday 18 August, 2022, 7pm – 9pm (6.45pm venue arrival)

Format: Hybrid: in-person (preferred) with zoom option

'Pills don't teach skills', but an ADHD coach could be the solution you need if you struggle with time management, organization, and self-esteem. Education on how to manage the condition is paramount if you have ADHD. It is a condition that has enormous impact on academic, social, employment and relationships outcomes. This talk will explore and explain these impacts and how you can better manage it across all settings.

Mark will also provide some introductory comments about ADHD, symptoms and traits. There will be plenty of time for questions and discussion.

Mark operates an Educational Consultancy working with adults and children with ADHD, supporting schools as well as educating parents and students in the effective management of ADHD. He also operates the Sydney Adult ADHD Clinic. Mark has also been an Assistant Principal & Classroom Teacher in both private and non-government schools. Mark has presented at conferences both in Australia and overseas. He is the past Chair of the ADHD Global Network, past President of the Learning Difficulties Coalition of NSW, the Canberra & Queanbeyan ADD Support Group Inc (ADDACT) and the Adult ADHD (ADDult) Association.
